OF THE

NEW YORK SOUTHERN SOCIETY.

---

ARTICLE I.

The name of this Association is NEW YORK SOUTHERN SOCIETY.

ARTICLE II.

The object of this Society is to promote friendly relations between Southern men resident or temporarily sojourning in New York City, and to cherish and perpetuate the memories and traditions of the Southern people.

ARTICLE III.

SEC. 1. All males of full age, resident of or having a permanent place of business in the City of New York, or within fifty miles thereof, and who, or either of whose ancestors are, or were, natives of any of the following States, namely: Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, Tennessee, Arkansas, Kentucky, Missouri, or the District of Columbia, or resident of and identified with any of the said States or District, shall be eligible to membership in the Society.

SEC. 2. All males of full age, not residing in the City of New York, or within fifty miles thereof, and who, or either of whose ancestors are, or were, natives of any of the said States or District, or resident of and identified with the same, shall be eligible for non-resident membership, and may be elected thereto in the same manner as resident members, and shall have all the privileges of resident members, save a vote at meetings of the Society, and as herein otherwise restricted.

SEC. 3. All applicants for membership shall be proposed by one member and seconded by another member of the Society, in writing.

SEC. 4. Membership shall be acquired upon approval and election by the Executive Committee and payment of the current dues. If an applicant for membership shall fail to pay the current dues within sixty days of the notice of his election by mail, addressed to him at the place given as his address in the application for membership, his election shall be void.

SEC. 5. In passing upon an application for membership, the Executive Committee shall vote by ballot, and two dissenting votes shall defeat the application.

SEC. 6. Resident members, on becoming non-residents, within the meaning of Section 1 of this Article, may, on their option, become non-resident members—such option to be certified in writing to the Executive Committee; and non-resident members shall become resident members on establishing a residence within fifty miles of New York, and shall thereupon pay the proper dues of resident members. Ministers of the gospel, without regard to residence, if otherwise qualified, may become non-resident members.

SEC. 7. That John Marshall be and is hereby made an honorary member of this Society in recognition of his services as originator and organizer of the same.

SEC. 8. Officers of the Army and Navy, now members, and those eligible to membership who shall be hereafter elected, shall be considered as non-resident members, and when they are ordered on service outside the limits of the United States, or stationed at a post distant more than two hundred and fifty miles from New York, for a period longer than one year, their dues shall be remitted during the period of such service.

ARTICLE IV.

OFFICERS.

The officers of the Society shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary and a Treasurer, who, with thirteen members until the Annual Meeting of 1896, and thereafter with twelve members, elected for the purpose, shall constitute the Executive Committee. The President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer shall be elected by ballot at the Annual Meeting in each year, to take office immediately upon election, and shall hold office for one year and until their successors are elected. Said thirteen members of the Executive Committee shall be elected at the Annual Meeting of 1895, by ballot, and shall immediately upon election divide themselves by lot into three classes, one class of five members to serve for one year and until their successors are elected, one class of four members to serve for two years and until their successors are elected, and one class of four members to serve for three years and until their successors are elected; and thereafter, beginning with the year 1896, four members of the Executive Committee shall be elected by ballot at each Annual Meeting to serve for a period of three years and until their successors are elected.

Non-resident members shall not be eligible to office or membership upon the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE V.

The President, and in his absence the Vice-President, shall preside at all meetings of the Society, and in the event of the absence of both President and Vice-President, a meeting of the Society or of the Executive Committee may elect its presiding officer.

The President shall, with the Secretary, sign all written contracts and obligations of the Society, and shall perform such other duties as the Executive Committee and the Society shall assign them.

ARTICLE VI.

TREASURER.

The Treasurer shall collect all dues and claims of the Society, and shall deposit the same in a proper depository selected by the Executive Committee. He shall keep the accounts of the Society and report thereon at each regular meeting of the Executive Committee and of the Society.

His accounts shall be audited by the Executive Committee semi-annually.

He shall pay all bills when certified as correct, as prescribed by the Executive Committee. He shall notify persons elected to membership of their election. He shall sign all checks of the Society, unless otherwise provided by the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE VII.

SECRETARY.

The Secretary shall give notice of all meetings of the Society and of the Executive Committee, and shall keep the minutes of such meetings; he shall conduct the correspondence and keep the records of the Society.

He shall furnish to the Treasurer the names of all persons elected to membership, and shall be the keeper of the seal of the Society.

ARTICLE VIII.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

SEC. 1. The Executive Committee shall adopt a proper seal for this Society, and shall have general charge of the affairs, funds and property of the Society.

It shall have full power, and it shall be its duty to carry out the purposes of the Society, according to its charter and constitution, to establish rules for the government of the members in the use of the rooms and property of the Society, to fix penalties for the violation thereof, and to enforce or remit the same.

SEC. 2. The Executive Committee shall have power to prescribe rules for the admission of strangers to the privileges of the Society.

SEC. 3. The Executive Committee shall have power to fill all vacancies which shall occur in the offices of the Society for the unexpired term of such officer, and also to fill all vacancies in the membership of the Executive Committee until the next annual meeting, when an election will be held to fill any vacancies in the membership of the Executive Committee for the unexpired term of the member creating the vacancy. The election of a member of the executive Committee to office shall create a vacancy in the place of the member so elected.

SEC. 4. Any member of the Executive Committee who shall absent himself from three consecutive regular meetings, unless he shall have previously obtained permission so to do from the Committee, or shall present at the next regular meeting an excuse for his absence, satisfactory to each member of the Committee present, shall be deemed to have resigned.

ARTICLE IX.

MEETINGS.

SEC. 1. There shall be an annual meeting of the Society on the first Thursday in March of each year, at such hour as the Executive Committee may designate.

SEC. 2. At all meetings of the Society, twenty-five regularly enrolled resident members of the Society shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

If no quorum be present, the presiding officer shall adjourn the meeting to any other day, with the same effect as if held above.

SEC. 3. Special meetings of the Society may be called at any time by the Executive Committee, and upon the written request of twenty-five resident members the President, and in his absence the Vice-President, shall call a special meeting of the Society; the request for a special meeting, and also the notice of any special meeting, shall state the object for which the meeting is called, and at the special meeting any subject not so stated shall not be considered.

SEC. 4. Notice of all meetings, whether annual or special, shall be mailed to each resident member of the Society at least ten days prior to meeting.

ARTICLE X.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

There shall be four standing committees of the Society: House Committee, Committee on Admissions, Committee on Literature and Art, and Auditing Committee, each of which shall be appointed annually from the Executive Committee by the President, and each of such committees shall consist of three members, except the House Committee, which shall consist of five members. Additional committees may be appointed in the discretion of the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee shall have power to remove at any time any member of any said committees.

ARTICLE XI.

HOUSE COMMITTEE.

The House Committee, subject to the direction and control of the Executive Committee, shall have charge of the rooms of the Society; they shall appoint and remove employees, receive the complaint of members and report upon them to the Executive Committee, and from time to time prescribe such regulations as may be necessary for the convenience and use of the members.

ARTICLE XII.

AUDITING COMMITTEE.

The Auditing Committee shall audit the accounts of the Treasurer semi-annually, and report to the Executive Committee the accounts audited and allowed since their previous report.

They may also act as a Finance Committee, with such duties and powers as the Executive Committee may prescribe.

ARTICLE XIII.

COMMITTEE ON ADMISSIONS.

The Committee on Admissions shall examine into and report to the Executive Committee upon the qualification of any candidate for admission into the Society.

ARTICLE XIV.

SEC. 1. The Society shall, as soon as may be practicable, establish a Library, which shall be confined, as far as possible, to those works which relate to the history and literature of the South, in order that it may portray the character and genius, and perpetuate the memories and traditions of the Southern people.

SEC. 2. The Committee on Literature and Art, subject to the direction and control of the Executive Committee, shall have charge of the Library and Reading Room, and of all the books, periodicals, papers and works of art belonging to the Society, and shall have power to solicit and receive donations and to select and purchase books, periodicals and works of art for the Society.

ARTICLE XV.

INITIATION FEES AND DUES.

SEC. 1. The annual dues for resident members shall be ten dollars, and for non-resident members five dollars, payable annually in advance on the first day of November in each year. But members elected within one month of the end of the current fiscal year shall, in all cases, be exempt from payment of dues for the unexpired portion of the fiscal year in which they are elected.

SEC. 2. When the dues of any member shall remain unpaid for the space of two months, the Treasurer shall cause him to be notified, by mail and if he fails to pay within one month thereafter, he shall cease to be a member, without any action of the Executive Committee; but he may be reinstated by vote of a majority of the members of the Executive Committee present at any regular meeting.

SEC. 3. Any member who shall fail to pay any amount due by him to the Society, except dues, for one month after the notice of the indebtedness, requesting payment of the same, may be dropped from membership by a majority vote of the members of the Executive Committee present at any regular meeting, but he may be reinstated by a like vote.

SEC. 4. Upon payment of the sum of $100, any member shall be entitled to a certificate, signed by the President and countersigned by the Treasurer of the Society, to the effect that such member is a life member of the Society, and exempt from further dues; provided, however, that such certificates outstanding at any one time shall not exceed one hundred in number.

ARTICLE XVI.

CENSURE, SUSPENSION AND EXPULSION.

Any member may be censured, suspended or expelled for a violation of the constitution, or a rule, or for any conduct not in violation of the constitution, or a rule, which, in the opinion of the Executive Committee, is improper, and prejudicial to the welfare or reputation of the Society, by a vote of three-fourths of the members of the Executive Committee present at a meeting, ten days' previous notice, in writing, having been given to the member, with a copy of the charge against him.

ARTICLE XVII.

RESIGNATIONS.

Resignations of membership shall be made to the Secretary in writing, which shall be accepted, provided all indebtedness to the Society shall have been paid by such member, and such member shall be in good standing at the time of offering his resignation.

ARTICLE XVIII.

AMENDMENTS.

The Constitution may be amended at any annual meeting of the Society, or special meeting called for the purpose, by a two-thirds vote in the affirmative, a quorum being present and voting.

Notice of proposed amendments shall be furnished to the Secretary at least fifteen days before the meeting at which it is proposed to consider them ; and the Secretary shall cause such notice to be printed and sent to each member at least ten days before such meeting.

BY-LAWS.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

SEC. I. At regular meetings of the Society, the order of business shall be as follows :

1. Reading of Minutes.
2. Unfinished Business.
3. Report of Executive Committee.
4. Report of Treasurer (at annual meeting).
5. Reports of Special Committees.
6. Miscellaneous business.

SEC. II. At regular meetings of the Executive Committee, the order of business shall be :

1. Roll call.
2. Reading minutes.
3. Unfinished business.
4. Report of Treasurer.
5. Report of Auditing Committee.
6. Report of Committee on Admissions.
7. Election of Members.
